PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Live up to your expectations in a home that is cut above the rest. This traditional style two story home combines high quality and comfort inside with an exterior that reflects picture perfect charm. Located just walking distance to Jefferson Elementary School and Visitation School, this is the home you've been waiting for!

A sharp dining room with crisp white baseboard, wainscoting, and crown molding nicely contrast the gleaming hardwood flooring and soothing décor, seamlessly continued on from the foyer.

An aesthetically appealing and equally efficient eat-in kitchen with fine wood cabinetry and stainless steel appliances delivers on the promise of perfection, while the adjoining family room features an inviting fireplace with stone surround. The open floorplan allows you to keep an eye on things in the family room and entertain while preparing your house specialties in the kitchen. Hardwood flooring in all main living spaces and large white framed windows throughout the home enhance the open and airy feeling from room to room.

Do you like to work from home, but lack the space and privacy? A main floor study with custom paint, chair railing, and hardwood flooring is perfect for a home office or library. Also located on the first level of this spacious home, you'll find the laundry room with tile flooring provides convenience, and allows second floor bedrooms to enjoy peace and quiet at night.

Upstairs, a tasteful and serene master bedroom suite fails to disappoint, featuring an attached bathroom with tile flooring, separate shower and soaking tub with tile surround. With three additional bedrooms on the second floor and a fifth bedroom located on the finished lower level, accommodating guests is easy. Each bedroom is complete with carpet flooring for comfort, large windows, and ceiling fan lighting overhead.

A fully finished basement provides even more valuable indoor living space, including a recreation room with a bar for entertaining, a workout room for your home fitness equipment, and the fifth bedroom with full bath. This versatile home possesses an ideal capacity for day living and entertaining, and a three car attached garage exceeds expectations at this price point. Don't miss your opportunity to call this dream home yours!
